Table. Open questions of the survey performed in each enterprise.

Id.	Questions
Q5	What elements of the EvaScrum evaluation do you think are most important for software developers?
Q6	Do you consider that the proposed EvaScrum evaluation contains enough elements to evaluate the Scrum framework?
Q7	Do you consider that the units of measures presented in EvaScrum are appropriate for the evaluation of the Scrum approach?
Q8	Do you consider that the 70 to 30 ratio defined in EvaScrum between the mandatory and complementary activities is appropriate?
Q9	Do you consider that the scale to determine the degree of implementation (not implemented, partially implemented, widely implemented, fully implemented) proposed in EvaScrum allows to represent the state of the enterprise?
Q10	Based on your experience, what is your perception about the ease of EvaScrum evaluation?
Q11	Based on your experience, how agile do you think the proposed EvaScrum evaluation is?
Q12	Has any deficiency been evidenced in the EvaScrum evaluation proposed?
Q13	Do you think EvaScrum evaluation allows software developers to identify opportunities for improvement?
Q14	Do you think that the results obtained in the EvaScrum evaluation are useful for software development enterprises?